Showcase Artist

April Vanderbilt

Jewelry Designer, April Vanderbilt, has degrees in Anthropology, Graphic Design, Art and Business Marketing. April's jewelry-crafting skills were acquired through formal classes and creative experimentation. Inspired by both Baroque and modern jewelry design, she enjoys combining colors that are pleasing to the eye -- sometimes subtle and sometimes bold. April continues to take classes in beading, chain, and metal working techniques.

The San Carlos Fine Arts Association

The San Carlos Fine Arts Association (SCFAA) was established in 1972 with the goal of promoting community interest in all phases of the arts. Currently, there are over 90 members.

SCFAA-Benefits:

- Participation in annual shows, such as the Spring Gallery Show and August Art.
- Demonstrations and lectures from local and visiting artists.
- Exposure to local art events, exhibits, workshops and classes.
- Meet local artists and become involved in the local art scene.

Membership Information:

Membership requirements are that an applicant shall be any person over 18 years of age who resides in San Mateo County, or works, attends school or belongs to any San Carlos-based organization, attends class or conducts business in San Carlos. Exception to the age limit may be made at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

Dues are $25.00 per year.

Our meetings are held on the first Monday of each month, in the San Carlos City Hall, located at 600 Elm Street, San Carlos, CA. Meetings are open to the public.

Meet the Artist

Stop by any Saturday in June, between 1 pm and 4 pm, to enjoy a collection of work by these artists. Then, “meet and greet” specific artists on the following dates:

June 2	LeVey Norquist, Edna Acri and Linda Roth
June 9	Evelyn Sleppy
June 23	April Vanderbilt and Daley Liddle
June 30	April Vanderbilt, Daley Liddle, Nina Miller and Michelle Gillette

Featured Artists

Edna Acri

"Watercolor has always intrigued me, and I have enjoyed these past 3 years in retirement learning my new craft. I enjoy the "feel" of watercolor and the effect of water and pigment blending and washing over a crisp, white surface of paper. I love the creative process that develops within a painting due to this relationship. In other words, I am enjoying my new found career as a watercolor artist!"

Michelle Gillette

Michelle Gillette is a painter and muralist specializing in landscapes and botanical themes in pastels or watercolors.

To see more of her work, please visit her website at www.gilletteart.com

Daley Liddle

“Photography has been a hobby since I was young. Taking photos of animals is what I enjoy most. “ A native of New York, Daley Liddle has lived in the Bay Area for 25 years. Daley’s other interests include traveling, gardening and reading.

LeVey Norquist

"My love of nature and wildlife photography has evolved over 30 years from Safari, to Alaska, the Galapagos Islands, Australia and New Zealand, Mexico, and back again to Alaska. The majority of my photographs have been taken from a moving boat, so I call my collection,

"From the dinghy and beyond."

Nina Miller

Nina Miller began painting four years ago under the tutelage and inspiration of Joyce Faulkner. Nina has been a resident of San Carlos since 1950 and is a member of the San Carlos Fine Arts Association. Nina finds inspiration from many sources, but the abundance of flowers in the garden of her 90 year old mother is a special source of inspiration.
